ANNUAL PET BLESSING -

For many of us, the family pet is an integral and very important part of our lives. They are not only our faithful friends but also members of our family. They love us, comfort us, they ease our loneliness, some even protect us. They do not ask for much from us, but give a lot back. St. Francis of Assisi was one of the people who had a very special connection with all kinds of animals. This year we will have the blessing of the pets on Saturday, October 5th, 10:00 AM. (Feast of St. Francis of Assisi is Friday, Oct. 4th) The blessing will take place in the back of the Rectory. Please bring all your pets (dogs, cats, gerbils, rabbits, guinea pigs, etc...) for this very special blessing through the intercession of St. Francis of Assisi!

REFLECTION: SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, LUKE 16:1-13.

TO KNOW: One of the important themes in Luke's Gospel is the right use of material goods. In the parable of the dishonest steward, Jesus contrasted the shrewdness of worldly people in planning for the future with the apparent indifference of the children of the kingdom. In the story, a steward mismanaged his master's funds. Faced with loss of employment, and knowing that he was unused to physical labor and too proud to beg, he devised a scheme. He forfeited his own commission, thereby reducing the amount owed by the debtors, thus ingratiating himself to both debtor and master. Jesus praised the enterprising steward for acting prudently, but he challenged his own disciples to consider whether they were as wise in the use of their goods as those who acted without the guiding light of the Holy Spirit. Jesus warned his disciples that they could not serve both the god of materialism and the God of the universe. One cannot be a servant of God and a slave to material goods at the same time.

TO LOVE: Is money my servant or am I slave to money?

TO SERVE: Lord Jesus, help me to use my resources for building your kingdom on earth.
